

Story Mapping

Story maps are used to support child in sequencing and retelling a story. They draw a picture to show the different parts of the story- pick out the key parts of the story. Talk to your child about each part of the story as they draw: the characters, the setting, what will happen next.

Here are some examples:

There is a cut and stick version on the school website if your child needs support.