

Duckling's Home Learning 'To Infinity and Beyond' - Q Pootle 5 W.C. 25th January 2021

Please find below activities to support your child's learning while they are away from school.

We suggest one writing/ phonics activity, one maths and one topic-based activity to be completed each day. Please note, there are now two record sessions on Tapestry a week- Phonics on Wednesday and Maths on Friday. There is a live Zoom session on Thursday afternoons. Independent play is an important way for children to engage in the world around them, so remember to play each day.

Please upload two activities a week- this could be any activities the children have completed over the week. Please ensure the outcome of the activity is as independent as possible. Some of your observations may be added to your child's journal. We look forward to seeing all your exciting learning.

Take care, Miss Matthews and Mrs Cameron ☺

Open/ download 'W.C. 25 th Jan Duckling's Phonics' Complete Friday slides. Consolidation activity: tricky word splat. (resource on school website)
Literacy	Listen to Miss Matthews read our book of the week 'Q Pootle 5' on Tapestry. Uh-oh! Q-Pootle 5's spaceship is damaged. Can you design him a new one? Draw and label your design. Make sure you plan carefully so you can make your spaceship from recycling later in the week. (resource on school website)	Think back to your learning about planets! Where did Q-Pootle 5 come from? Perhaps a planet we have not heard of? Create your own planet. What does it look like? What's it called? Who lives there? (resource on school website)	Q-Pootle 5 was on his way to Z-Pootle 6 party. What food do you think they would have at the party? Can you write a shopping list of the foods the aliens will need?	LIVE Zoom Session Group 1: 1.00pm- 1.15pm Group 2: 1.15pm- 1.30pm	Make Z-Pootle 6 a birthday card. Have a look at some birthday cards you have at home. What do you need to write? Could you design a picture for the front? Or write a happy message inside? Don't forget to write your name.
